

Series to Feature Heber Valley Historical Homes

By Carol Wurth

History is everywhere in Heber Valley and is very apparent in the many older homes which were built to last through many years of use. One of the grander homes in Heber City would be the Dean Todd home at 315 East Center Street. Originally the Dr. William R. Wherritt home, Mrs. Todd inherited her parents home and has restored it.

A large, well-constructed brick home, it was built in the early 1900's by sheepman John Austin and purchased by Dr. Wherritt in 1908.

The home displays a significant feeling of times gone by. Lois Todd has decorated the home completely in antique furniture, much of which has been in the home since the Wherritt family lived there.

Dr. Wherritt was a prominent physician in Heber Valley and for many years the only doctor. He settled in Heber in 1899 and married Emma Hatch in 1900. She was the daughter of Joseph Hatch and the granddaughter of Abram Hatch, the first stake president.

(Continued on Page 2)

public officials can still tell a truth. "well-being" is "utmost in their withheld and that "there would be public in hearings." Like a night Board Chairman Harold Smith's should now go ahead, rather than be possible in a democratic society action if its citizens?

Hopefully, at this "point in time too sophisticated to accept such plans themselves to be deprived of choice them to make those choices in an officials at every level will begin to desires of the public they serve.

I am no longer a resident of and emotional ties to an area I consider my deep concern. As one still recognizing leadership in high office, I am it at the very root system of our life.

Whether it regards a political county hospital, in a free society to

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN JOIN
VIEWS, WRITE TO BOX 206, MID